(f) take charge of and preserve the records of all geodetic and topographical surveys, maps and aerial photography or other remotely sensed imagery.

(2) Any person employed in the office of the Chief Director may, if authorised thereto by the Chief Director, perform any specified act or task which may be performed by the Chief Director in terms of this Act or any other law.

[S. 3A inserted by s. 12 of Act 61/98]

4. Establishment of offices of Surveyors-General for provinces

(1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, establish a Surveyor-General’s office for any province or any provinces jointly, give a name to that office, and determine the seat thereof.
(2) The Minister may, in the execution of subsection (1), abolish any Surveyor-General’s office or incorporate it with any other such office, and may for this purpose make any administrative or other arrangements as he or she may deem necessary.

(3) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, amend or withdraw a notice referred to in subsection (1).

5. Appointment of Surveyor-General

In respect of each Surveyor-General’s office referred to in section 4, the Minister shall, after consultation with the Chief Surveyor-General, and subject to section 50 and the Public Service Act, 1994 (Proclamation No. 103 of 1994), appoint an officer who shall be a land surveyor, who shall be styled the Surveyor-General and who shall, subject to the directions of the Chief Surveyor-General, exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred upon or assigned to him or her by this Act.

6. Powers and duties of Surveyor-General

(1) A Surveyor-General shall be in charge of the office in respect of which he or she has been appointed and shall, subject to this Act -

(a) take charge of and preserve all records pertaining to surveys of land which were, prior to the commencement of this Act, preserved as records in that Surveyor-General’s office and which, after the commencement, become records of that office;

(b) before any registration is effected in a deeds registry, examine and approve or provisionally approve all general plans and diagrams which have been prepared in accordance with this Act and, when applicable, are in accordance with any statutory consent in so far as the layout is concerned;

(c) on the diagram of any piece of land -

(i) define the geometrical figure representing any portion of that land, the transfer of which has been registered in a deeds registry, and deduct the numerical extent of that portion;

(ii) define the geometrical figure representing any portion thereof for which a certificate of township title or registered title has been issued under the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act No. 47 of 1937), and deduct the numerical extent of that portion; and

(iii) define the geometrical figure and make the necessary endorsements in respect of any servitude or lease over or on that land which has been surveyed in terms of this Act and registered in a deeds registry;

(d) cancel or amend in accordance with the provisions of any law any general plan or diagram;

(e) prepare, certify and issue, at the request of any person and on payment by that person of the prescribed fees, copies of diagrams, general plans and other documents filed in his or her office and available to the public, and copies of general plans and diagrams registered in a deeds registry in the province concerned;

(f) compile and amend such cadastral plans as may be required, and generally exercise all such powers and perform all such duties as are by any law conferred or imposed upon a Surveyor-General, and perform such other functions as the Chief Surveyor-General may assign to him or her.

(2) Any land surveyor employed in a Surveyor-General’s office may, if delegated thereto by the Surveyor-General concerned, perform any function which may be performed in terms of this Act or any other law by that Surveyor-General, and a Surveyor-General may delegate any power referred to in subsection (1) (c), (d), (e) and (f) to any person employed in his or her office.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 13 of Act 61/98]

7. Delegation of powers

The Minister may delegate or assign any power or duty conferred or imposed upon him or her by or under this Act, except the powers referred to in sections 2, 4 and 5, and the proviso to section 33 (1) (a) to any officer of the Department.

8. Fees of office

(1) The Director-General may, by notice in the Gazette, prescribe the fees to be charged in respect of any act or matter required or permitted to be performed or dealt with in or in connection with the offices of the Chief Surveyor-General, the Chief Director and the Surveyors-General.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 14 of Act 61/98]

(2) Any notice referred to in subsection (1), or any amendment or rescission thereof, shall come into effect 30 days after it has been published in the Gazette, or at such later date as the Director-General may determine.

9. Survey regulations board

(1) A survey regulations board (in this section and in section 10 referred to as “the board”) is hereby established consisting of -
(a) the Chief Surveyor-General, who shall be the chairperson of the board;

(b) three land surveyors appointed by the Minister, who shall be officers in the service of the State; and

(c) three land surveyors nominated by the South African Council for Professional and Technical Surveyors established by section 2 of the Professional and Technical Surveyors’ Act, 1984 (Act No. 40 of 1984).

(2) For every member of the board appointed in terms of subsection (1) (b) or nominated in terms of subsection (1) (c), there shall be an alternate member appointed or nominated, as the case may be, in the same manner as the member referred to, and any alternate member so appointed or nominated shall act in the place of the member in respect of whom he or she has been appointed or nominated as alternate member, during the absence of that member or during his or her inability to act as a member of the board.

(3) If the South African Council for Professional and Technical Surveyors fails to nominate -

(a) a member for the purposes of subsection (1) (c); or

(b) an alternate member referred to in subsection (2), the Minister shall appoint a land surveyor as a member or alternate member, and any member or alternate member so appointed shall be deemed to have been nominated in terms of subsection (1) (c) or (2), as the case may be.

(4) (a) A member of the board referred to in subsection (1) (b) shall hold office for the term determined by the Minister, but the Minister may at any time remove that member from office on grounds of misbehaviour, incapacity or incompetence.

(b) A member of the board referred to in subsection (1) (c) shall hold office for a term determined by the South African Council for Professional and Technical Surveyors but not exceeding two years, but that Council may, at any time remove that member from office on grounds of misbehaviour, incapacity or incompetence.

(c) A member of the board whose term of office has expired, may be reappointed.

(5) Should a member of the board die or vacate office before the expiration of his or her term of office, the Minister or the South African Council for Professional and Technical Surveyors, as the case may be, may appoint a person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired part of the term for which the member was appointed or nominated.
